

March & April

What Are We Learning?

Friday Series

Like, Comment & Subscribe: Social media can feed the idols of our hearts with every click and tap more than we realize. We'll look at how we can use social media without getting caught up.

Sunday Series

1 John: Not only is God love, we are called to love with the love of God. We'll investigate how we can draw from the ultimate source of love in order to show the love of God to the world.

Thriving in College: In order to prepare students for the challenges of college, upperclassmen will learn how they need to prepare themselves across many fronts (spiritual, relational, academic, etc.) in order for them to be successful in their college years and beyond.
